

Saheed Anurup Chandra Mahavidyalaya : Institutional Distinctiveness

Details of the performance of the institution in one area distinctive to its vision, priority and thrust.

One of the distinct and interesting facts of the college is Community Involvement through its NSS unit. Being situated in a rural setting, the college has adopted a nearby village 'Telari-Kestopur' under Nodakhali Police Station in the district of South 24 Parganas. Under the mission and vision of the Institution, the college endeavor to work with the people of rural India in identifying development challenges and evolving appropriate solutions for accelerating sustainable growth. Through this village adoption, the college encourages the students to be community conscious and teaches them to give back to the community. The NSS unit of the college organizes Health Awareness Camp, Health Check-up Camp and Eye Check-up camp in this village to aware the under privileged people of the locality about cleanliness and prevention of diseases .

Guided by its Mission and Vision, the college has the avowed goal of bringing holistic and quality higher education within the reach of all. The quality education is provided through regular classes and by conducting various programs where students are fully involved. Students are trained in basic Computer Application and Communicative English to make them employable in the challenging job market. Various cleaning and awareness programs are conducted by the NSS unit of the college. Various Social Programs like "Raksha Bandhan", "International Mother Language Day" are celebrated to enhance social and communal harmony among the students of the locality which is a mixed religious area. Celebration of Teachers' Day and various Games & Sports events like athletics, volleyball, Kho-Kho and Football are organized by the students and staff to invigorate them. Inter-class singing, dancing, recitation, debate, extempore competitions are organized with the help of students and alumni themselves.
